

Shirlane Hendrickson

Shirlane Hendrickson, four times National Calypso Queen of Trinidad & Tobago (1998-2001), actress, designer, entrepreneur, was born in Trou Macaque Laventille on October 29th 1961. The second daughter of calypsonian All Rounder, Shirlane is also an outstanding writer, executive producer and manager and has also performed on many global platforms in the Caribbean, USA, Europe and West Africa.

Shirlane holds a Bachelors Degree in Business Management, has begun a Masters of Divinity Program, is a Certified Nursing Assistant, a Licensed Radio Broadcaster and the C.E.O. of Shirlane's Fashions in Brooklyn, New York, USA and has served on several organizations such as the President of the Orlando Carnival 2003 and 2004.

She is currently the elected Assistant General Secretary of the Trinbago Unified Calypsonians Organization National Executive, Head of Communications and Vice-Chairman of the TUCO North Zone.

A member of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, Shirlane was elected unopposed on Friday June 2nd 2017 in Santo Domingo as the 1st Vice-President of the AMEC Episcopal 16th District Lay Organization as well as she was appointed by the Bishop as the Secretary of the 16th District.